OUR COMMITMENT: MOVE WITH PURPOSE

At TriDri, performance and responsibility go hand in hand. We believe that great activewear should empower your movement while protecting people and planet.

We're proud to say that 78% of our range now features certified sustainable materials, including recycled polyester and recycled nylon. Transforming waste into high-performance fabrics that look good, feel great, and do good. From minimizing the use of raw materials to cutting our water usage in production, reducing carbon emissions and more.

Our GRS (Global Recycled Standard) and RCS (Recycled Claim Standard) certifications ensure every recycled style meets the highest environmental and social standards.

Finally, we are working towards all our products being OEKO-TEX® Standard 100 certified, guaranteeing that our products are free from harmful substances and safe on your skin.

At TriDri, sustainability is an ongoing journey. As we continue our progress, moving us closer to our goals and redefining what it means to move with purpose.

OUR ETHICAL STANDARDS

At TriDri, our commitment goes beyond performance and materials; it extends to the people behind every product.

We work exclusively with partners who share our values, guaranteeing fair, safe, and respectful working environments for all.

Social responsibility takes top priority. Through audits with WRAP, Sedex, and Amfori BSCI at our production facilities, we ensure responsible and ethical production practices across our supply chain. Each accreditation reflects our dedication to fair working conditions and transparency.

When you choose TriDri, you're not only choosing innovation and performance. You're supporting a brand that values every individual behind each garment.

SPUN DYED

The material of this product is manufactured using the 'spun dye' dyeing process, compared to standard dyeing practices spun dye uses:

- 75% FEWER CHEMICALS
- 66% LESS WATER
- 60% LESS CO<sub>2</sub>

The spun dye process dyes garments prior to the spinning process which also means garments offer improved colour fastness.

For a more responsible choice that works as hard as you do, choose spun dye.
